Pullman Student Technology Fee Funding Requests Open for Application

Student Technology Fees are charged for the purpose of providing technology resources for general student use at Washington State University. The “technology fee” is a fee charged to undergraduate students to recover, in whole or in part, the costs of providing and maintaining services to students that include, but need not be limited to: Access to the internet and world wide web, e-mail, computer and multimedia work stations and laboratories, and computer software.

Interested groups may request funding from the student led Technology Fee committee. The request template and request process timeline, as well as the Technology Fee Committee Guidelines and governing RCW can be found at: http://budget.wsu.edu/technology-fee/index.html

All application materials are due to Emily Green (ewgreen@wsu.edu) no later than Monday, February 24th, 2020, at 5pm.

The Technology Fee Committee will conduct a Technology Budget Review and application preview Thursday February 27th, 3:00pm-4:00 pm in French 442 Conference Room.

Technology Fee Hearings will be conducted March 3rd and 4th from 5:00pm-8:00pm in Lighty 405 followed by deliberations on Thursday March 5th, 5:00-8:00pm in Lighty 405. The public is welcome to attend all meetings, hearings and deliberations.
